Most Of LBJ Advisers OK $6 Billion Cut

Budget Chief Sticks To $4 Billion Slash As Tax Hike Price

WASHINGTON (AP) — Most of President Johnson's top economic advisers now appear willing to accept $6 billion in spending cuts as the price for higher taxes if that's the best bargain they can strike.

Of the top four, only Budget Bureau Director Charles S. Zwick is still firmly committed to no more than $4 billion in spending cuts—a position taken by the President.

The first test vote on the compromise package worked out by Senate-House negotiators will come next week.

Rep. James A. Burke, D-Mass., plans to offer a resolution Wednesday instructing House negotiators to resume meeting with their Senate colleagues and to insist on spending cuts of $4 billion.

The negotiations have already worked up a formula calling for $6 billion in cuts—which Johnson contends is too much—and the 10 per cent income tax surcharge requested by the President.

Chairman Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., of the House Ways and Means Committee said Thursday he expects the House to pass the compromise as it now stands "when all the fanfare is over." He thinks Burke's motion will fail.

The money was taken from the larger, main safe on the first floor. Nothing was taken from two smaller floor safes, one on the first floor and the other on the balcony, police said.

Secretary of the Treasury Henry H. Fowler has already endorsed the compromise package.

The burglars used the "rip-and-peel" method, termed "professional" by police.

Loss Placed At $4,309 In Safecracking

The loss has been set officially at $4,309.76 in the burglary of three safes at the Columbia County Finance Co., 612 Dresden Ave.

Burglars cracked the safe Wednesday night.

Whatever the outcome, some key voices in the administration are now ready to accept Mills' plan just to get the surcharge.

Secretary of the Treasury Henry H. Fowler has already endorsed the compromise package.

The prime concern of Johnson, Celler and other opponents involves the proposed controls on the Supreme Court. And some opponents say constitutional questions are raised by

Flames Raze Vacant Home

Liverpool Township firemen are investigating a blaze which destroyed an unoccupied home on Price St. early this morning.

Fire Chief Robert Badger said the roof of the two-story frame house, owned by Mrs. Lovejoy of Price St., had been consumed by flames when his department arrived after receiving a belated call from a woman in the neighborhood at 3:45.

Most of the interior had been destroyed and only the outer walls remained at 5:45 when the fire was finally brought under control. Two pieces of equipment manned by eight men responded to the call, Badger said.

The cause remains undetermined and a loss estimate will be made after consultations with Mrs. Lovejoy, Badger said.

Festival

Mrs. Jerry Reed and Mrs. Helen Moore reported on final preparations for a program to be printed for the festival.

H. Jud English, chairman, presided.

The Mardi Gras festival dates back to 1699 and by 1766 it was a well-established custom in New Orleans, only to be temporarily discontinued, because of robbery and vandalism, during the early part of the 19th century.

His experiences in Spain during the Spanish Civil War inspired Ernest Hemingway to write "For Whom the Bell Tolls."

Dentist Speaks To Kiwanis Club On X-Ray Value

A discussion on dental X-rays was presented by Dr. Frank Bragg of Chester at a meeting of the Kiwanis Club Thursday at the Travelers Hotel.

Dr. Bragg, introduced by Alvin Arner, pointed to the misconception held by many about the hazard of the X-rays, and cited the value for a patient's dental health.

There is much greater protection for the patient, technicians and dentist than in earlier years of the X-ray equipment.

—Prohibit interstate mail-order sales of handguns and their over-the-counter sale to nonresidents of a state and otherwise tighten federal firearms controls.

The House last year passed the "Safe Streets" part of the bill providing for federal grants to strengthen local law enforcement. The Senate grafted on all the other provisions.

Celler, in line to head the conference committee that will attempt to resolve differences in the Senate and House versions, already has said he would rather see the bill ditched than accept the section to undo Supreme Court decisions on the admissibility of confessions and lineup identifications.

Some senators reported they expect President Johnson to veto the bill unless these provisions are stricken.

But Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., who steered the bill through the Senate, said he was determined to keep them.

Passage of the bill followed more than three weeks of debate.

Kills 2 And Injures 2

WASHINGTON, Pa. (AP) — A teen-aged boy from Ohio lost control of his car on rain-slick Interstate 70 and it overturned, killing him and a companion and injuring two girls.

Churchill Or Chamberlain?

An interesting, if surprising, comparison involving Gov. Ronald Reagan of California is being made.

A fellow Californian is reputed to have made this comparative statement: "Sooner or later Winston Churchill is going to be president."

The speaker followed up with this observation: "It may not be this time. The country may want a Neville Chamberlain. But someday we'll turn to someone who's offering only blood, sweat and tears."

THE AMERICAN political candidate who has been the most hawkish in his pronouncements regarding both the foreign Reds and the domestic rioters is Ronald Reagan.

While both Mr. Nixon and Gov. Rockefeller are being very cautious in their comments about Vietnam, Gov. Reagan has been flailing away.

He is saying that if the Communist negotiators don't meet the U.S.-imposed progress deadline and continue to stall, the United States should "kick the devil out of" North Vietnam, possibly with an invasion.

Monday, in Florida, he declared: "If Vietnam is a symbol of the foreign policy of this administration and Newark and Detroit are symbols of the domestic policy of this administration, then you and I have been pouring our money down a rat hole."

Gov. Reagan is demanding that government "protect society from lawbreakers instead of the other way around" and he says it is none of the college students' business whether or not the universities cooperate with the Pentagon.

RATHER OBVIOUSLY a candidate now, Gov. Reagan is saying things that a lot of people have wanted to hear.

Whether or not this is time for a Churchill or a Chamberlain remains to be seen. Perhaps it will depend on how much the nation has suffered by November.

More Than A Plaything

The model of the proposed downtown business section as suggested by the East Liverpool "Comprehensive Plan" is not a fantasy to be viewed, admired — or condemned — then forgotten.

The people of East Liverpool have paid out too much money and spent too much time and labor in planning for this model, now on display at the City Hall, to be dismissed as a plaything, an interesting projection of fanciful imaginations, a dust collector in someone's basement.

The projected changes for the downtown were worked out by citizens, community leaders and the planning consultant as answers to our problems, just as the whole plan was developed as a solution to needs for subdivision regulations, building and housing codes, commercial and industrial development, expanded recreation and cultural facilities, and general community improvements.

The small replica of the possible future East Liverpool downtown will never be realized in its exact detail, for the plan, intended to be flexible to meet new conditions, will revised and re-adapted.

But the challenge the model represents will continue to exist, and only the short-sighted and weak-willed can block decisions which spell the difference between what this city has to do with the times or, forgetting all that has been done so far, succumb to lethargy and resignation.

We have already had minor successes in implementing the plan. But some down-to-earth action on financing and construction is next on the agenda.

Commendable, But Not Easy

In Chicago, some five years ago, before the pressure to train the unskilled and hire the hard-core "unemployables" had built up to its present level, three Hotpoint plants launched an experimental plan along these lines.

There were problems, some difficult, nasty ones, right from the beginning. Most of the disadvantaged workers were Negroes and fitting them into the factory routine gave management headaches. The problems ranged from a high rate of absenteeism to assembly line errors.

The ghetto workers were far from a personnel man's dream.

Actually the 1963 program was launched more from an economic point of view than an altruistic one. The company's pool of manpower had gone dry and it didn't want to move the three plants unless compelled to.

So the hiring of the "unemployables" began.

The Other Side Heard From

An Ohio State University graduate student, James Roy Thompson by name, has bitten off a big chunk of trouble for himself. In case you missed it, Thompson is circulating petitions to have leaders of recent OSU campus disorders expelled.

His complaint, in a nutshell, is that students like himself attend college to learn something and that riots and demonstrations that disrupt a college's normal functions deprive him and others of that right.

SEEMS LOGICAL enough, right? You pay for something and expect to get what you paid for. So why should that add up to trouble?

Simply because there is an increasingly vocal segment of society today whose philosophy is that if you don't like the game's ground rules, trample them — even if you grind other people's rights into the grounds in the process. Anyone who has the temerity to oppose them runs the risk of being vilified as a racist, bigot or worse. This is the chunk of trouble that Thompson has bitten off.

Thompson hit the nail on the head when he said that college disorders are the product of over-permissiveness.

Most college rules were evolved over many, many years. They were put on the books because it was found the college functioned best with them. Countless thousands of students passed through the educational process without finding them overly restrictive. Then along comes a hothead who will spend, in all probability, only four years on campus. He doesn't like the rules.

WITH A FEW OTHERS of similar persuasion, he sets out to upset the "establishment." This is where the over-permissiveness enters in. If college administrators would crack down at this point much of the trouble could be averted. But in bending over backwards to give full vent to student expression they forget the rights of the majority.

It takes a student like James Roy Thompson to bring it all back into focus again. Like others, Thompson has had it up to here. Fun's fun but time's awastin'. He went to Columbus to prepare for a career and these agitators are getting in his way.

Go get 'em, James Roy Thompson.

At any rate, the point is clear that segregation was not their first choice. Northwestern's blacks have been criticized by both the black press and the white press for their so-called demand for segregation. However, we feel that their only error was in stating their quite justifiable demands in terms that were too easily misunderstood by hasty critics from the sidelines.

A tactic is doing the best you can with what you've got, and is only worth using if it works. What good are demands if no one hears them? This type of property seizure has been used by oppressed groups dozens of times in the past to gain the ear of the Establishment (take the sit-down strikes at General Motors, for example). This seizure of university property (which damaged nothing and hurt no one), contrasted with the violence of discrimination of the past 400 years, really is not so out of line.

Bobby's Inconsistency

Presidential candidates are out to get votes and some of them do not realize their own inconsistencies.

Just the other day, Sen. Robert F. Kennedy of New York made a speech in Los Angeles which certainly was received with favor by Protestant, Catholic and Jewish groups which have been staunchly supporting the cause of Israel against Egypt and the Arab countries. Mr. Kennedy said:

"We cannot — and will not — permit the Soviet Union to achieve an imbalance in the Middle East. We can and will fully assist Israel — with arms if necessary — to meet the threat of the massive Soviet military buildups. We cannot — and will not — render Israel defenseless in the face of aggression."

BUT DURING the last three years, on the other hand, the Soviet Union has been sending munitions to North Vietnam as well as bombing North and other weapons of war mounting to a total of at least a billion dollars a year.

Yet no demand has been made by any of the presidential candidates that economic sanctions be taken against the Soviet Union and other Communist countries.

Sen. Kennedy, on April 24, declared the United States should use its power during international crises "only as a strategic reserve against the most serious of threats." He added:

"Vietnam is only Vietnam. It will not settle the fate of Asia or America — much less the fate of the world."

Lots of people, however, think the situation in the Middle East is not nearly as dangerous as the situation in Southeast Asia.

Also there are many members of Congress who feel that, if it is proper for the United States to render military support to Israel in the Middle East, it is just as necessary to protect the countries of Southeast Asia against aggression.

Sen. Kennedy, in a speech in Portland, Ore., last month, criticized the administration's attitude even more severely when he said:

comment on white society which alternative the administration chose.

At any rate, the point is clear that segregation was not their first choice. Northwestern's blacks have been criticized by both the black press and the white press for their so-called demand for segregation. who agree with the black demands, has concerned the disapproval of the tactic of seizing a university building. We feel, in this case, that the mechanics of realizing their demands, is irrelevant. A tactic is doing the best you can with what you've got, and is only worth using if it works. What good are demands if no one hears them? This type of property seizure has been used by oppressed groups dozens of times in the past to gain the ear of the Establishment (take the sit-down strikes at General Motors, for example). This seizure of university property (which damaged nothing and hurt no one), contrasted with the violence of discrimination of the past 400 years, really is not so out of line.

Decision Slated On Annexation

LISBON — Columbian County commissioners are expected to return a decision today on a request for the annexation of 340 acres to the village of Columbiania.

They met Thursday afternoon with Lawrence Stacey of Columbiania, counsel for petitioners in the area east of the village, and James D. Primm Jr., councilor for opponents.

Commissioners have had the question under study since a public hearing April 29 at Lisbon Village Hall.

They met yesterday with Levi Kimball, deputy director of the Ohio Highway Department's Division 11 at New Philadelphia, and a group interested in gas pipeline right-of-way under the proposed County Airport in Madison Township. Nothing was resolved in either session.

Kimball asked the commissioners "to go 50-50" on the construction of a new $30,000 bridge over the middle fork of Little Beaver Creek. The span would carry Route 164, which is to be relocated to eliminate two 90-degree turns and a narrow bridge at the southwest edge of Lisbon.

Talks

U.S. Secretary of Defense Clark M. Clifford, also speaking in Washington put the problem from the U.S. point of view in terms that North Vietnam has used to describe its own operations.

"The North Vietnamese have consistently stated," Clifford said, "that their intention was to fight and negotiate, and we must be prepared, both physically and psychologically, to do the same."

Johnson said, "It still is not clear that Hanoi is ready for an early and honorable peace."

His statement seemed to reflect the frustration experienced by his negotiating team in Paris

Present for discussion of the airport question were Vince Lanave of East Liverpool, chairman of the County Airport Authority, and Vaughn McMorrow of Wellsville, a member; Dick Scheetz of Moseure & Fok, the Youngstown engineering firm retained by the CAA; Don Eckert, East Liverpool planning coordinator; E. C. Ingraham and August Frye from Consolidated Gas Supply, and Herman Hoppe of East Liverpool RD and J. Michael Kapp of East Liverpool, his attorney.

Commissioners hired James E. Fleak of 105 Thompson Ave., East Liverpool, as a night clerk in County Southwest Court at Lisbon at $325 per month. Fleak is a disabled veteran and will succeed Terry Barcus of Beechwood, East Liverpool, who resigned.

Doris Ferguson of Salineville, photostat operator, was reasigned as commissioners' assistant clerk to replace Judy Shingleton of Salem, whose resignation will become effective May 31.

Dr. Reinhold Rankine of Lisbon was hired for another year as County Home medical director.

at failure to make any progress in opening secret talks with the North Vietnamese. This was proposed to Ambassador Xuan Thuy by Ambassador W. Averell Harriman in their meeting Wednesday and Thuy rejected it.

Thuy's strategy, at least through the Wednesday session, has been to use the talks as a forum from which to present his case to world public opinion that the United States is guilty of aggression against North Vietnam and should end all its attacks against that country without getting any North Vietnamese de-escalation in return.

The Harriman-Thuy conference is coming to the end of its second week with four meetings held, including only one this week. The next meeting is scheduled for Monday. While the sessions have been held behind closed doors, U.S. and North Vietnamese spokesmen have made public reports of virtually everything important that was said.

In Moscow, Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko supported Hanoi's demands for an unconditional halt to U.S. bombing but in talks with British Foreign Secretary Michael Stewart gave the impression he was not too pessimistic about that future of the Paris talks.

Stewart supported the U.S. demand that Hanoi must agree to military restraint if all U.S. bombing is to cease. Gromyko discussed the lack of progress in Paris so far, but informants said he stressed the "so far," giving the impression that he is optimistic over the outcome.

Stewart and Gromyko are co-chairmen of the old Geneva peace conference machinery for Indochina, but informants say they failed to find anything they could do to help bring peace to Vietnam.

Gulf Says Gas Found In North Sea Area

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — Gulf Oil Corp. says one of its wildcat wells has discovered gas in the North Sea 18 miles off the Yorkshire coast.

Gas was flowing from the well at a rate of 17 to 35 million cubic feet a day, depending on the size pipe used, the giant petroleum firm said.

Columbus' ship, the Santa Maria, was wrecked on a reef near Haiti and only the Nina and Pinta returned to home port.

Gas was flowing from the well at a rate of 17 to 35 million cubic feet a day, depending on the size pipe used, the giant petroleum firm said.

The next meeting will be held at Lawrenceville June 27. Ken Schneidmiller, acting president, announced.

Campaign

near the Lincoln Memorial, heading to Capitol Hill after receiving word that arrests were being made.

Police had already sent two vans full of demonstrators off for booking—five more empties were waiting—before Jackson persuaded them to stop by promising all the remaining demonstrators would leave. The group had originally numbered about 200.

He said he also told the police, "If you arrest these, you'll have 3,000 more to deal with today and it would be a sound decision to call it off."

The incident pointed up the touchy leadership problems of the campaign. Though conceived by the SCLC, it attracts many groups which have brought to Washington leaders not in the SCLC hierarchy.

The marchers who went to the Longworth Office Building Thursday, for instance, were headed by George A. Wiley, executive director of the National Welfare Rights Association.

While the word from SCLC officials was that the time to shift the campaign to a pattern of civil disobedience had not arrived, Wiley's battle cry to the cheering demonstrators after the confrontation with police was: "This is only the beginning."

The marchers' mission was to see Rep. Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee.

But the door to Mills' office was blocked by police. Some of the group, waiting outside on the sidewalk, began singing and kneeling in prayer. Police, after warning that this was illegal, began making arrests when the demonstration continued.

The demonstrators had gone to Mills' office to demand he call hearings so they could testify in favor of repealing a new welfare law which limits the number of dependent children eligible for welfare benefits.

Mills sponsored the measure. He declined to see them.

Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman told Abernathy and other members of a delegation of poor people Thursday the federal food-stamp program will be expanded to 256 more counties by July 1.

The meeting was a follow-up to one held earlier this month at which campaign leaders left a list of demands.

Annual Outing Being Planned By Area's Firemen

Members of the Tri-State Firemen's Association made plans for their annual picnic during a meeting Thursday in the Ohioville fire hall.

In other business, the Calcutta department offered to host the Columbiania County fire training school in 1969.

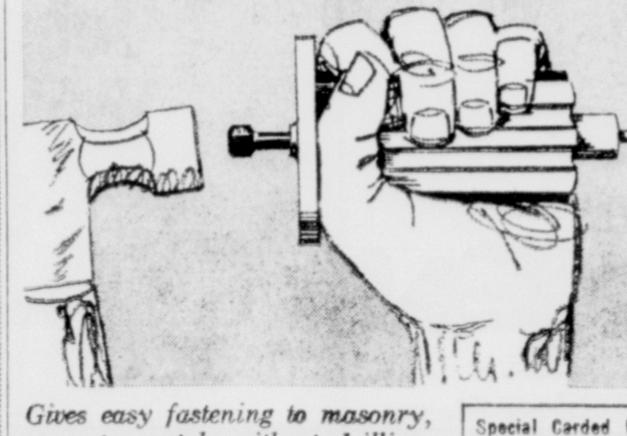

The LaCroft department announced its carnival will be held June 10-13, and the Ohioville department reported it will sponsor a carnival Aug. 23.

A past president's pin was awarded Tony Ulizio of the Ohioville department.

The next meeting will be held at Lawrenceville June 27. Ken Schneidmiller, acting president, announced.

Disturbances Sunday Night

3 OU Students Suspended For Disciplinary Reasons

ATHENS, Ohio (AP) — Three Ohio University students were suspended today for disciplinary reasons as a result of a campus disturbance Sunday night.

The office of University Vice President James Whalen disclosed the action but declined to identify the students.

A brief statement from Whalen's office stated there "probably will be additional cases in the near future" as the investigation continues.

Upwards of 1,500 student spectators and participants in a demonstration roamed the campus several hours Sunday night. Windows were broken in several campus buildings, including the home of University President Vernon Alden.

A group of students announced plans for a campus rally scheduled at noon today. That way the deadline students set for university authorities to start acting on a list of grievances.

It appeared unlikely the deadline would be met.

"I would be very foolish to say that we should act on these grievances or even the high priority ones by noon tomorrow," OU President Vernon Alden said Thursday night.

Alden made the announcement in an address directed to the students which was carried by local radio stations.

Alden said the university had agreed to consider the grievances but that it would be impossible to make immediate changes.

He met with a five-member grievance committee, headed by acting student body president Rita Correll, and afterward announced that "all the suggestions tions will be evaluated and reviewed with students and faculty members, and when appropriate, there will be action."

At the time the noon rally was called, student leaders did not disclose what action might be taken if the university failed to meet the demands.

But in his radio talk, Alden warned that "any disruption in the educational process and/or violence will be met with appropriate action."

The grievances were drawn up at a meeting of about 3,000 students in the aftermath of a Sunday night campus disturbance. About 1,500 students took part in a rock throwing incident.

The Ohio National Guard put 650 men on standby alert in Athens, but the troops pulled out Wednesday when campus operations returned to normal.

Alden also warned that his decision to weigh the grievances "does not mean I have given in to some of the threats that are being made. I am simply trying to recognize that many of your grievances are real . . ."

Alden added that he has received many letters deplored Sunday night's incident and that "it will take some time to restore the confidence of people in the student body of Ohio University."

Among the priority grievances are demands for immunity for students involved in the Sunday disturbance, disclosure of university expenditures, 24 hour operations of Baker Center and its snack bar, the right to keep 3.2 low power beer in dormitories and permission for students to choose a pass-fail grading basis for one subject each quarter.

Judge Penalizes 9 Area Motorists

Seven motorists were fined and two forfeited bonds in County Judge Barry Dickson's Court at East Palestine Thursday.

Fined for speeding were Gary Dean Densmore of 7th Ave., LaCroft, $5 and costs; Duane Blaner of Anderson Blvd., $20, and Norman L. Burkey of Lisbon RD 3, $15.

Others fined were George D. Thrasher of 419 Buckeye Ave., Wellsville, and Edward Lee Taylor of East Liverpool RD, $15 and costs for defective mufflers; Charles Powell of Lisbon RD 2, $10 and costs for reckless operation, and Wayne E. Smith of Rogers, $15 and costs for an unsafe vehicle.

Richard Brand of 6th Ave., LaCroft, forfeited $25 on a traffic violation, and David R. Weaver of Negley RD 1 forfeited $25 for a defective exhaust charge.

Key-On Likes 'Festus'

That dialect Ken Curtis uses as Festus Hagen in "Gunsmoke" may be slightly exaggerated, but it's a true one and Ken comes by it naturally.

"It's making two syllables out of one-syllable words that does it," he explains.

"The word 'horse,' for example, is pronounced 'H O R - sus.' And 'brown' is 'bray-OUN.' A man's name like 'Ken' becomes 'Key-ON.'"

THIS BROAD nasal drawl Ken calls a "dry-land" dialect and it comes from southeast Colorado where Ken was born, and the Texas Panhandle and parts of Oklahoma and Kansas.

"I knew I didn't talk like everybody else when I went to Colorado College to study medicine, because I was getting laughs on my straight lines," says Ken, with only a trace of southeast Colorado in his speech now, when he's not playing Festus.

It wore off as he went through college and switched from medicine to song writing and singing. When he went to California, he joined a series of song groups, including the Sons of the Pioneers, and later sang with Shep Fields and Tommy Dorsey's bands.

IT WAS the late Les Crutchfield, writer of many "Gunsmoke" episodes, who coined the name Festus Hagen (Festus was a Biblical governor, New Testament Acts, Chapter 25), when Ken joined the series regularly in the fall of 1963 to take over when Dennis Weaver gave up his Chester role.

"I guess I sort of created the character myself when I played a fellow named Monk in a couple of 'Have Gun, Will Travel' episodes. Monk was a skinner who smelted so bad they wouldn't let him stay in the cow camp with the others, and he had the Festus dialect," Ken recalls.

He'd lived with the dialect so long as a boy. Ken had no trouble slipping back into it for his role. And the jail at "Gunsmoke's" Dodge City was almost like home to Ken. His father was sheriff six years in Las Animas, Colo., when Ken lived at home, which is only 150 miles west of Dodge City, Kan.

"WE LIVED in the jail, my folks and me, and I can remember my mother standing guard at a steel door with a sawed-off shotgun while I took the prisoners their food. They ate the same as mother cooked for us, so it was mighty good. We had prisoners who'd get themselves arrested just so's they could eat that food," Ken says.

This was the period of the real Bonnie and Clyde and Pretty Boy Floyd and other desperadoes roaming the area, and Ken remembers them, al-

3 Drivers Cited In Area Mishaps

Both drivers involved in a car-truck mishap south of Lisbon Thursday were cited by the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon.

Ray F. Rudibaugh, 33, of Lisbon RD 3, driver of the southbound convertible, was cited by the patrol for leaving the scene of an accident.

A Waynesburg man was cited as the result of a two-car mishap at the intersection of Routes 162 and 118 near Lisbon Thursday at 2:30 p.m.

Officers said Blaine Bowers, 48, was charged with failure to stop in the assured clear distance after his southbound 1968 sedan rammed the rear of a 1966 sedan halted for a stop sign at the intersection.

The 1966 model car was driven by Frank J. Griffith of Salineville RD 1, officers said.

Today In Washington

WASHINGTON (AP) — Despite the tight new rules governing sales of gold the U.S. stockpile of the precious metal stood at $10.547 billion at the end of April—lowest since 1936.

The Treasury Department reported Thursday the total U.S. supply fell by $156 million during the month, substantially less than other recent months thanks to the restrictions imposed in mid-March.

The new rules bar sales to private buyers, permitting only governments of other nations as customers. As is their practice, Treasury officials refused to identify which nations made purchases from the U.S. stocks last month.

WASHINGTON (AP) — A voice of experience has warned the United Auto Workers it "will be the weaker" for having quit the AFL-CIO.

The advice was offered Thursday by the president of the International Association of Machists in an editorial in the union's newspaper.

The Machinists quit the old American Federation of Labor in 1940, returned to the fold in 1945, and then cut loose again in a matter of months, this time until 1951.

"We went through the revolving door and we found it to be a mistake," P. L. Roy Siemiller, president of the IAM, said in the editorial.

"Unity is labor's only source of strength," the editorial said. "The entire labor movement is weaker because the United Auto Workers has left the AFL-CIO. The UAW will be the weaker for its own action."

The DOCTOR Says

By Dr. W. G. Brandstadt

Migraines Are Nearly Nonescapable

A mother writes that her daughter, 7, has migraine headaches and would like to know how to prevent them. If this child has true migraine attacks she is lucky in one respect — she at least knows what she has. Thousands of persons who are subject to attacks of one-sided headache preceded by a zigzagging blind spot for 30 to 40 minutes and associated with vomiting don't know that these attacks are migraines.

INSO FAR as the disease is hereditary and often a specific cause cannot be found, the attacks are hard to prevent. Recent studies indicate that the attacks are associated with a drop in the blood level of serotonin and that an injection of this substance will give prompt relief.

Q—Our daughter, 6, has frequent attacks of tonsillitis. The doctor always gives her Chloromycetin. I have heard that this drug has dangerous side effects. What do you think?

A—Most drugs have some undesirable side effects. Your doctor understands the risks and prescribes them only when he thinks the benefits will justify their use. The danger is minimized when the dosage is small and the drug is given for a limited period.

Dirksen Defeated Again In Subversive Board Bid

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen has lost another round in his dogged bid to keep the moribund Subversive Activities Control Board alive beyond this year.

A desk-thumping, shouting speech in which Dirksen suggested he had backing from President Johnson and railed at Atty. Gen. Ramsey Clark failed to rally enough Senate support for the Illinois Republican's cause.

Dirksen had proposed a crime control bill amendment that would allow the attorneys-general of each of the 50 states to prosecute alleged subversive organizations before the board.

But amid opponents' complaints that the precedent-shattering approach went too far, the Senate turned him down, 49 to 27.

The board was the subject of widespread publicity last year with the disclosure it had not handled any business for nearly two years.

Its five members each draw $26,000 a year.

The agency was spotlighted in mid-1967 when it was learned that the latest appointee was a 29-year-old accountant, Simon F. McHugh Jr., who had mar-

Mayor Slaps Curfew On Wilkinsburg

WILKINSBURG, Pa. (AP) — Mayor Alexander Jaffurs slapped on a curfew and ordered police patrols into the borough's schools today after a gang of youths armed with baseball bats and chains tried to march in from Pittsburgh.

Jaffurs ordered the heavy school guard—including auxiliary and special police and firemen—because, he said, "professional outside agitators" had linked up with local black militants to harass Wilkinsburg.

He said the 10 p.m. to 6 a.m. curfew on persons under 18 years of age would be in effect indefinitely.

The mayor moved to clear the streets of youngsters Thursday night after Pittsburgh police warned the gang of about 100 was making its way from the Homewood section.

Jaffurs said a civil rights group's statement last week "that the (school) board would either capitulate to certain demands or the town would be burned" has split Wilkinsburg wide open.

"The demands in themselves were not bad," the mayor said. "But to couch them in words that they did have triggered racial warfare, and we don't need that."

Earlier this week a group calling itself the Black Parents of Wilkinsburg demanded the resignation of Wilkinsburg High School Principal W. P. Lohr. They said he showed "bigot bias and a lack of response to the needs and feelings of the black children."

The group also demanded the school board investigate what it called an anti-Negro student group at the school and hire Negro guidance counselors.

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP) — John D. "Jay" Rockefeller IV was vacationing out of state when his uncle came to town—but a political opponent was on hand and heard some advice from New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller.

John S. Callebs, 35, said Thursday that Gov. Rockefeller had encouraged him to continue as the Republican nominee for West Virginia secretary of state in the November election.

Jay Rockefeller won the Democratic nomination for the secretary's post in a lopsided primary victory earlier this month. Callebs, a university instructor, had been considering withdrawing.

Tableware 'Do's, Don'ts'

DEAR HELOISE: Dishwasher compounds are very strong and using the right one is most important when doing fine china, porcelain, glassware or any other tableware.

Some "do's and don'ts" rules I have established for myself, based on instructions from my dishwasher's manufacturer and my own experience are:

Follow manufacturer's instructions both for using your machine and for washing your tableware.

Be sure all decorations (painted or decal) are UNDER the glaze on china or porcelain to be washed in the dishwasher. (Most glassware decorations, except for gold, are safe in the dishwasher.)

Don't place hand-painted tableware in dishwasher. (This type usually is not glazed and hence, would be damaged by strong detergents.)

Don't place silver holloware or hollow-handle silver flatware in dishwasher. (The cement in bases of holloware has a filling which extreme heat will damage.)

Don't place plastics in dishwasher unless labeled as "dishwasher proof" by the manufacturer.

Don't place wooden ware in dishwasher. High temperature will probably loosen glue. Also, the heat when drying will cause the wood to dry out.

Don't place heavy glassware such as lead glass which is used in uncut as well as cut pieces in the dishwasher. The high heat of the water may cause glass to expand too quickly which would cause cracks to form and might ruin the glass.

MARTHA RICHARDS.

DEAR HELOISE: When going on our vacation each year, I take a pair of shorts and a pair of socks and roll them in an undershirt and put them in my suitcase that way. One roll for each day.

Then all I have to do is take out a roll for a change and don't have to go through the entire contents of the bag looking for each separate item.

DEAR HELOISE: I'm flabbergasted that by putting your 25-cent bar of cocoa butter on our face and neck we can get rid of those wrinkles!

I've got a friend who's 86 and in 30 days it has already made a big difference in her neck muscles and skin lines.

We both thank you, but I don't think I'll be around to check the results on YOU when you're 86 — as I am already 72 . . .

DEAR HELOISE: I've found a wonderful little helper that almost everyone has in their home. Its price is next to nothing and you buy them by the hundreds — a toothpick! (Round ones are better.)

I've used them to clean my built-in stove where the grease and grime collect around the base, and around the lettering on my appliances. They clean scroll work, knobs on radios, and best of all, cracks and crevices that you can't get to with a cleaning cloth.

Two Sentenced To Pen In Decisions By Sharp

LISBON — Judge Joel H. Sharp of Common Pleas Court sentenced Frederick Clair, 24, of East Palestine to 1 to 5 years in the Ohio State Penitentiary Thursday for a shooting incident last Aug. 5 near Salineville.

Edward J. Gorman, 43, of Darlington RD 2, who was convicted Wednesday of a burglary Jan. 29 at the East Palestine VFW post, waived his right to ask for a new trial and was sentenced to 1 to 5 years in the penitentiary.

Judge Sharp cited Clair's record in denying his request for probation.

Clair was indicted by the September grand jury on a charge of assault with a dangerous weapon and asked for probation after admitting he fired a .38-caliber revolver several times at three young men in a car.

Howard pleaded guilty to a charge of carrying concealed weapons in his truck and was sentenced March 5 to six months in the County Jail. The court said he can reduce the sentence to three months by good behavior. He had to surrender the .38 and a .22-caliber pistol to the sheriff.

When the athletes were introduced at the Buckeye Border Conference Wednesday night, there was only one boy present from Carrollton.

"Looks like they brought their whole track team," said Beaver Local track coach Larry Knight. Knight wasn't kidding, either, as the lone representative was Perry Stone, who won three events, setting three records, and took second in a fourth event at the conference meet.

ZAN KING of Cleveland Lutheran East should be one of the top performers at the Class A track meet in Columbus over the weekend. King has done a 9.9 100, a 22.2 220 and a 21-4½ long jump.

ARTIE (THE HEAP) Baldau and Jerry James, two standouts on Follansbee's basketball team this past season, will attend Fairmont State next year. Fairmont won the WVIAC basketball title this past season.

EUCLID'S all-state center, 6-8 Al Vilcheck, will attend Louisville U. next year.

RIVER LOCAL, located near Hannibal down the river, has come out of the OVAC to be one of the four state finalists in Class A baseball.

Continuous Rain Hurts Spring School Sports

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Continuing rains have cut back the schedule of the Ohio High School Spring Sports Championships which start here today.

Originally, the tournament was to be a two - day affair winding up Saturday.

The Class AA baseball semifinals have been postponed until 2 p. m. Monday. Cincinnati Roger Bacon meets Toledo Rogers and Columbus Marion Franklin tangles with Cleveland Shaw, with the winners meeting in the championship game at 11 a. m. Tuesday.

Owners Hint Lockout In Pro Football Battle

NEW YORK (AP) — Faced with a "no contract, no football" threat from their veteran players, National Football League club owners were to present their side of the economic picture at a news conference today.

The NFL Players' Association broke off negotiations Thursday after a meeting in which the owners refused to budge on any of the players' economic demands.

Dan Shulman, the players' lawyer, said a policy of NFL clubs not signing veterans until the current negotiations are over was "in effect, a lockout."

The team will play in two leagues this year, the Columbian County League, which also includes Leetonia and Columbiana, and the Ohio Valley League. There are two divisions in the latter league, and East Liverpool is in the Northern division, which also has Cadiz, Steubenville, Titusville, Weirton and Follansbee.

The regular season, of about 30 games, will run through the end of July. Most of the home games will be played at the Colt League Field and the rest at Crucible Field in Midland.

There will be a try-out for the teams at 5:30 p. m. tomorrow at the Colt League Field. All boys who attend East Liverpool, Beaver Local, Wellsville and Oak Glen high schools and who will not be 19 before Aug. 1, 1968, are eligible.

Paul Gill is the team manager, while Len Walker will coach and Jim Arcuri will assist.

The annual exhibition game against the Midland Legion team will be played at Crucible Field July 4.

Bucs Rained Out; Indians Win 9-2

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

There's nothing like a nice little winning string to give a baseball team a lift in the standings. Except, perhaps, a nice little losing streak by the guys directly in front of you.

San Francisco's ambitious Giants have won eight of their last 11 games and St. Louis' cooperative Cardinals have dropped eight of their last 11. Result: A five-game pickup for the Giants and a change at the top of the National League race.

San Francisco captured first place Thursday with a 5-4 victory over Atlanta while St. Louis was losing 3-2 in 11 innings to Los Angeles in the only NL games played. New York at Philadelphia and Pittsburgh at Chicago were rained out.

In the American League, Cleveland battered California 9-2 and Chicago's game at Washington was rained out. The other teams were not scheduled.

The Giants beat the Braves for the third straight time when Marty Martinez, a substitute catcher, let one of Cecil Upshaw's pitches get away with Ron Hunt on third base in the ninth inning.

Hunt had opened the ninth with a single and reached third on a sacrifice and a ground out before scoring on the passed ball.

The Braves had rallied to the game in the eighth inning on Joe Torre's fourth hit of the game which drove in Hank Aaron. Aaron had tripled, scoring Tito Francona.

The Cardinals lost their seventh game in the last eight

Mel Daniels

To Indiana

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (AP) —

Jim Daniels, star of the Minnesota Muskies American

Basketball Association team

the past season, has been traded to the Indiana Pacers, it was learned Thursday night.

Larry Shields, president of the Muskies, confirmed at Miami

Beach that Daniels would go to the Pacers in exchange for Ron

Kozlicki and Jim Dawson, plus an undisclosed amount of cash and Indiana's No. 1 college draft choice.

A player does not have to be under contract until the regular season begins but the club must notify each player by May 1 if they intend to pick up his option

— that is, make him their pro

erty for another year.

The players are asking $500 a game for preseasont contests, a $5 million annual payment to their pension fund and a $15,000 minimum salary.

Shulman and John Gordy of the Detroit Lions, president of the players' association, said the owners agreed to pay the minimum salary from $7,500 to $10,000 but added this would not cost the clubs any money since most players now get at least $10,000.

The regular season, of about 30 games, will run through the end of July. Most of the home

Alley's Aching Shoulder Worries Pirate Officials

By The Associated Press

CINCINNATI (AP) — The Pirates may be about ready to break out of their hitting slump, but last-place Pittsburgh has more worries than hitting.

Like Gene Alley's tender right shoulder.

Alley, a class shortstop, has been in and out of the Bucs' lineup for the past two weeks. Some days his shoulder feels okay, other days there is a dull pain which, he says, makes his arm feel weak.

The Pirates go with Maury Wills at short and Jose Pagan at third when Alley is hurting. It's a fair stop-gap measure, but can't carry the club for long stretches.

Alley should be okay tonight when the Bucs open a series at Cincinnati, but he said Thursday, "The shoulder still hurts."

The Pirates put on their best hitting show of the season Wednesday at Chicago in a 13-6 victory but Thursday's game was rained out. Manager Larry Shepard hoped that Wednesday's performance might be a preview of things to come for the Bucs, who have a team average of .255.

If Alley continues hurting this summer, General Manager Joe Brown will have to decide whether to call up little Freddie Patek from Columbus.

Pete is a fine fielder. Wills, at 35, is a slowed-down shortstop. He will make the routine plays, but his quickness for a shortstop seems gone.

Cincinnati is three games behind the leader and has a 19-19 record.

Bob Veale will oppose Cincinnati's George Cuiver tonight.

Pittsburgh's Al McBean will face Gerry Arrigo Saturday Night and Sunday's contest puts Jim Bunning against the Reds' Mel Queen.

Women Pros, Amateurs Collide In Tennis Play

PARIS (AP) — The Federation Cup went into the quarter-finals stage today, with the United States, Australia, Britain, South Africa, Russia, France, Bulgaria and the Netherlands still in contention.

The world's top amateur players are tuning up their game at the right time—ready to challenge the pros in next week's open French championships.

That will be the first time professional and amateur women players have been matched against each other since open tennis was sanctioned.

MacCall's quartette—Billie Jean King of Long Beach, Calif., Ann Jones of Britain, Francoise Durr of France and Rosemary Casals of San Francisco—will be the top seeds in the women's singles.

Huntington To Defend Track Title

CHARLESTON — Huntington High School defends its Class AAA state track championship here beginning at 5 p.m. today.

Finals in the pole vault mark the start of competition. Charleston's Mountain Lions and St. Albans are favored in the event.

Trials in three other activities—the broad jump, shot put and discus—also are slated to begin at the same time.

Another final is scheduled for today—the two-mile relay. Huntington East is picked to win on the strength of its snappy time of 8:12.5 turned in at the regional qualifying runs last Monday.

In the pole vault, the chief triple-A contenders are Charles-ton's Mike Burrell and Steve Murray of St. Albans.

Pocca's Richard Beckner, who has been flirting with 13 feet during the season, appears to be the class of double-A vaulters.

In Class AA team scoring, Park Central of Bluefield is expected to steamroll events without much difficulty.

Fishing Derby Rescheduled

The Fifth Annual Beaver County Fishing Derby, postponed last Saturday because of rain will be held this Saturday, May 25, from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Youngsters wishing to register can do so at the boating area at Brady's Run Park Lake prior to and during the event.

In addition to the first prize of a $25 war bond, 100 other prizes will be awarded.

The committee is once again asking the sportsmen to refrain from fishing during the derby period so that the youngsters may have an opportunity to compete for the many prizes.

Bengals Sign 3 More College Draft Picks

CINCINNATI (AP) — Three more college draft selections have signed 1968 contracts with the new entry to the American Football League, the Cincinnati Bengals.

All three are from Grambling College—defensive halfback Essex Johnson, sixth round; Kick-ing specialist Wes Bean, seventh round; and guard Harold Jones, 12th round.

Wills has become a good third baseman this year. Pagan, at 33, doesn't have the range to play shortstop.

Should Alley keep hurting and have to be benched about a week each month, the Pirates' defense will suffer and this means the pitching will suffer.

That's something the Bucs can't afford right now, especially this weekend against the Reds, who top the majors in hitting with a .255 mark. They are in fifth place in the National League.

In their last outing with the Pirates, the Reds swept a three-game set.

The Pirates recently have lost four contests without scoring a run and dropped four more by 2-1 scores. They snapped a five-game losing skein Wednesday by dubbing Chicago behind Willie Stargell's three homers.

Pittsburgh's pitching has led it to the 16 games it has won—it stands 16-20 on the season. The Pirates' pre-season picks by many writers to win the National League pennant, have not lived up to their billing, although they are only five games off the pace set by San Francisco.

Cincinnati is three games behind the leader and has a 19-19 record.

Bob Veale will oppose Cincinnati's George Cuiver tonight. Pittsburgh's Al McBean will face Gerry Arrigo Saturday Night and Sunday's contest puts Jim Bunning against the Reds' Mel Queen.

STATE SPRINTER. Roy Walker of Midland (right) discusses plans with coach Vic Martinetti. Walker will run in the PIAA Class B track meet at Penn State tomorrow. Walker placed second in the 100-yard dash in the WPIAL Class B meet at Hopewell.

Challenger Foster 12-5 Pick Over Tiger

NEW YORK (AP) — Light heavyweight champion Dick Titter spots towering Bob Foster again, height, weight and reach but not in heart tonight when they clash in a 15-round title fight at Madison Square Garden.

Some girls are showing the kind of form that could upset the pros next week. Possible giant killers are Nancy Richey of San Angelo, Tex., Mrs. Margaret Court of Australia, Mrs. Christine Janes of Britain and Anna Dmitrieva of Russia.

Thursday, Miss Richey beat Anne Marie Studer of Switzerland 6-1, 6-1 while Mrs. Court took Suzana Petersen of Brazil 6-0, 6-0. In other matches, Mary Ann Eisel of St. Louis beat Marianne Kindler of Switzerland 6-0, 6-1.

Foster's physical advantages and his punching power have combined to make the 29-year-old challenger from Washington, a 12-5 favorite over the 38-year-old defender from the Republic of Biafra. The odds could go down by fight time.

The bout is scheduled for 9:30 p.m., EDT. It will be telecast in some areas of the nation by Sports Network. New York will be blacked out of the telecast.

The Garden hopes for a crowd of 15,000 and a gate of $15,000 which would get both Foster and the promotion off the financial hook. Foster has taken 60 per cent of the net gate and television and guaranteed Tiger $100,000 out of his percentage. He may wind up fighting for nothing.

"It doesn't matter," said Foster. "The main thing is the title. It's make or break. If I blow this, I may never get another chance. I don't intend to blow it. He'll go in four or five rounds, or the first time I get him."

"The first four rounds will be the most dangerous," said Chickie Ferrara, Tiger's trainer. "If Dick gets by that he will come on. He has the biggest heart of any fighter I ever saw. He will chop Foster down with his body punches."

Foster has these advantages over Tiger: height—6-foot-3½ to 5-8; reach—79 inches to 71, and weight—about 175 to 167.

The former Air Force champion and ex-bomb factory worker has a 29-4 record, including 23 knockouts.

Tiger, making the third defense of the title he won from Jose Torres on Dec. 16, 1966, has a 58-15-3 record, including 26 knockouts. He never has been stopped.

Indianapolis Qualifying Rained Out

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — Rain, which has washed out days of practice for the Indianapolis 500-mile race and limited last Sunday's qualification runs to one, threatens the final two scheduled days of time trials.

Only 16 of the 33 starting positions for the May 30 race are filled. And drivers who weren't ready for qualifications last weekend have had little time to tune their equipment this week.

Saturday's Indianapolis area forecast is for scattered showers or thundershowers.

Officials of the Indianapolis Motor Speedway haven't said what they will do if Saturday's and Sunday's trials are rained out.

If the trials are rain-postponed, qualification runs could be attempted almost up to the starting time of Thursday's race.

Toronto Gets Pierre Pilote For Pappin

TORONTO (AP) — The goal-hungry Toronto Maple Leafs added more age to their already ancient but efficient defense corps Thursday by obtaining veteran All-Star Pierre Pilote from the Chicago Black Hawks in a surprising National Hockey League trade.

To obtain the 36-year-old Pilote, Toronto gave up right wing Jim Pappin, 28, who has played with the Leafs for parts of five seasons and was one of the stars of their 1967 Stanley Cup victory.

Pilote was named to the first All-Star team five times and to the second team three times in his 13 NHL season. He won the Norris Trophy as the best defenseman in the league in 1963, 1964 and 1965.

Pilote joins Toronto defensemen Allan Stanley, 42, Tim Horton, 38, and Marcel Pronovost, who will be 38 next month. Goalie Johnny Bower is 43.

The Leafs slumped from their Stanley Cup triumph to fifth place in the NHL's East Division and missed the playoffs for the first time in 10 years. They allowed only 176 goals, second best in the entire league, but scored only 200, lowest in the East.

France is second to Russia in size among European nations,

2 Men Are Safe In Plane Crash; Almost Hit Boys

CLEVELAND (AP)—Two men walked away from the crash of a light plane that narrowly missed a group of boys playing baseball and burst into flames after sliding through a tennis court in suburban Fairview Park Thursday.

Jack Marshall, 42, the pilot, said the engine on the single-engine Piper Cherokee stalled shortly after takeoff from Cleveland Hopkins Airport, less than two miles from the crash scene.

Marshall, of Birmingham, Ala., and his passenger, David Anderson, 30, of Port Clinton, Ohio, suffered minor injuries.

The pilot said he purposely skinned trees in Morton Park to slow the plane before it hit the ground. The aircraft hit a tree at the edge of the baseball field, veered down and hit a short fence, rupturing the gas tank.

Fairview Park Fire Chief J. Orrie Baumgartner said the net and fence of the tennis court saved "a real disaster." A 26-building apartment complex is less than 75 feet from where the plane was stopped by the wire fence.

Anderson, a chemist for Uniroyal, Inc., was returning home from a business trip to Boston and charted the plane, owned by Sky Tours Airlines of Port Clinton, at Hopkins Airport.

Ohio Doctor Receives Top Scouting Award

CHICAGO (AP) — Prospect, Ohio, physician Robert T. Gray, Thursday night joined the ranks of those who have received scouting's highest award, the Silver Buffalo.

Dr. Gray was honored at a dinner here by the movement for a life-time's service to the Boy Scouts of America. He was medical officer at the last five national jamborees, the 1955 World Jamboree, the 1957 Jamboree in England, and the 1961 Canadian Jamboree.

Origin of the military salute is obscure, but it may have been traced back to the Crusades era when it was accepted as a substitute for raising the hat or helmet.

Junior Editors Quiz on EARLY ART

QUESTION: Did early men have arts and crafts?

ANSWER: Scientists believe men started to use crude stone tools a million or more years ago, but think that art and higher crafts did not begin to appear until about 50,000 years ago. The hunting of animals seems to have been responsible for the first art. Our pictures show how this may have come about. Early men lived by hunting animals and naturally got to know their shapes. Some found they could draw lifelike animals on walls. Many such are still to be seen. A frequent use of animals was to carve bone or horn, like the wonderful horse's head. Still another was imitating the handsome patterns on animals' skins, such as that of the giraffe in our picture. Notice how the pebbles at the bottom, decorated by some primitive craftsman, resemble animal patterns. The piece of beautiful printed bark cloth carries this kind of inspiration still further and bears a curious resemblance to certain forms of modern art.

To Democratic Convention*West Virginia Delegation Favors Humphrey Heavily

CHARLESTON (AP) — West Virginia's delegation to the National Democratic Convention will be top-heavy with supporters of Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey.

With 54 of the state's 55 counties reporting—Mingo has not yet completed its vote canvass—Humphrey's state headquarters lists 24 of the delegation's 36 members in its camp.

Sen. Robert F. Kennedy's main office said seven persons favoring the New York senator for the presidential nomination are among the leaders. One of the tentative delegates said he will vote for President Johnson despite the President's refusal to be a candidate.

Spock Shown In Antidraft Rally On TV

BOSTON (AP) — Television films of Dr. Benjamin Spock standing on the steps of the Justice Department building in Washington, exhorting young men to continue resisting the draft, have been shown to a federal jury trying the pediatrician and four others on antidraft charges.

"Remember, the greatest weapon the government has is division and we must not attack each other, we must stick together," Spock was heard to say in the film of an antidraft rally last Oct. 20.

Also seen and heard in the films projected Thursday was another defendant, Yale Chaplain William Sloane Coffin Jr., 43.

On trial with the 65-year-old baby doctor and Coffin are Mitchell Goodman, 44, a New York writer and teacher; Marcus Raskin, 33, a Washington research director; and Michael Ferber, 23, a graduate student at Harvard. All are charged with conspiring to counsel, aid and abet young Americans to evade and avoid the draft.

The government contends that during the rally, Coffin, Spock, Goodman, Raskin and others attempted to hand over a briefcase containing 185 draft cards to John McDonough, an assistant deputy U.S. attorney general, at a meeting inside the building in a deliberate violation of Selective Service laws.

The incident is one of several upon which the government based its indictments against the defendants, who face five-year prison terms and $10,000 fines if convicted.

Spock's remarks during the meeting, McDonough said, were confined to a condemnation of the Vietnam war and the claim that President Johnson was trying "to save face" by continuing the war.

McDonough did not accept the cards, but the government says the visitors left the briefcase on a table as they walked out.

It was the first major setback for the union, which has had complete success in organizing Cuyahoga County public hospitals. Mount Sinai is a private hospital.

Licensed practical nurses voted 140-14 against the union and nonprofessional employees turned it down 220-200.

Estate Awarded
$168,000 In Suit

A Federal Court at Pittsburgh has awarded a $168,000 settlement to the estate of George W. Mackall of Wellsville, who was killed May 22, 1965, at the Midland yards of the former Pennsylvania Railroad Co.

The court ruled the company was negligent, with the rails at the yard, two inches wider than they should have been, being blamed for derailing the train which pinned and crushed the 36-year-old Mackall.

Two Refuse Induction; Rally Staged

BOSTON (AP) — Two draftsmen refused induction Thursday and an antidraft demonstration was held in the Boston Common where The Resistance, an anti-draft organization, claimed 29 draft cards were turned in.

About 300 demonstrators paraded outside the Boston Army base as three youths who said they would refuse induction entered. The Army said that Harold Hector and Gary Quigley refused to take the symbolic step forward and that the third youth, Frank Poindexter, was not qualified for induction.

During the march, the demonstrators paused at the Arlington Street Unitarian-Universalist Church where they heard a speech by Army Spec. 4 William Chase, 19, of Dennis, a Vietnam veteran who the Army says is absent without leave from Ft. Lewis, Wash. Chase urged other youths to refuse to serve.

Chase stayed in the church throughout the day. He is claiming "sanctuary" in the church, as did Robert A. Talmanson 21, of Boston.

Talmanson was taken from the church Wednesday by federal marshals.

There are about four times more traffic fatalities at night than during daylight.
